THE MAILS-CARELESSNESS.

The canvass bag which left this post office last Thursday, containing the western mail, including our paper of that day, returned in the stage, on Tuesday evening. How it could have been overlooked, and sent back here, we cannot conjecture. It Goods and Groceries, and those whose stocks are shows a carelessness on the part of some one, either post master or driver, which ought not to be suffered to go unnoticed. Our package of papers for Keytesville, for instance, which ought to have been delivered last Friday morning, is back here, five days afterwards. So of our subscribers at Brunswick, Linneus, and other places. We shall attempt to find out where the fault lies, and will at least give the offender a public notice for his carelessness. We labor hard, night and day, to prepare the news for our patrons, always mailing it in due time .--This we do, faithfully, and after our paper is deposited in the post office, our control over it ceases; others are paid to perform their part, and if we can ferret out the delinquents, we will at least let the people know who is to blame for the way they are treated. We will take it as a favor if our subscribers will assist us in this matter, by promptly notifying us of the failure of our paper, together with the causes.

DYING-LIVING.

Men live differently, act differently, die differently. Politically, they differ as much as bodily, in death struggles. Witness the way a brace of Northern locofoco Editors die :-

From the Plain Dealer.

A set of politicians, of the most desperate political fortunes-men who in their own name, would not be trusted by the people to fill the lowest office in their gift -will, under this automaton of a President, this mummy of a man, rule the destinies of the nation.

From the True Democrat.

In short, an old, ignorant, slave-killing General, with his sword tightly clutched from the battle-field, and seats himself in quiet the Presidential chair. Shame!

Hard dying that! The Editor of the Pennsylvania Democrat, goes off much easier. Hear him:-

"Amid the general route, Ohio has re-

Mails," the Democratic New York True Sales bacon sides at 34c, and shouldere at 4c. To-baco is scarce. The markets generally are dull. Sun says:

"We continue to receive from all parts of the country the most favorable assurances of the success of our candidates; but, he will attend to paying Taxes for non-resices of the success of our candidates; but, perhaps, it may be as well to add that the papers containing these assurances are all dolph County Court, against the estates of deceasof a date prior to the 7th inst."

the following persons of Cincinnati who were cured by Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar, after being given up to die with the last stages of Con-sumption, not only by their friends, but by physiians of the highest standing:

Mr. D. Ludlow, Fifth street, between Race and Mr. H. Plummer, hatter, between Eighth and Ninth, on Main street.

Mr. G. Whitehead, Catharine street, half a quare below Linn. Mrs. Ann Childs, Sixth street, two doors west of Smith, &c.; &c. Be not deceived by worthless medicines, which are palmed on you, when such men as Dr. Wm. Richards and Judge Wm. Burke, Dr. H. Cox, late Professor of Cincinnati Medical College, have ome out and certified, that Dr. Rogers' Liverwort nd Tur is the great consumption remedy. Dr. Cox states, that Miss Belt was pronounced y Prof. Warden and the late Prof. Worcester to be in the last stages of Consumption, and give her up to die; yet Dr. Rognrs' Liverwort and Tar en-tirely cured her. Statement of Judge H. Morse, of the Courts of thio and Gincinnati. I am well acquainted with Dr. Hiram Cox and his practice, he having been my family physician for many years, and can cheerfully say, that I have as much or more confidence in him and his skill as a practicing physician as any man living. HENRY MORSE

Cincinnati, Nov. 7th, 1847. Dr. H. Cox is also the family physician of the Hon. Judge Jas. Saffin, of Cincinnati, late City

Caution to all .- Owing to the increased demand for this medicine, an unprincipled man, (John T. Toland.) in Cincinnati, imitated in external appearance only the yellow and blue wrapper, and espatched an interested runner, (P. Clinton,) in this nefarious business to St. Louis to make sales. This counterfeit omits the name of A. L. Scoville, in fine print on the bottom of the outside wrapper, where it reads, "Entered according to Act of Congress," &c. On the genuine, the name of A. L. Scoville is found following the words "Entered according to act of Congress," &c. Dr. O. HENDERSON, Agent, Glasgow; Dr. SNELson, Favette, Orders may be addressed to H. BLAKSLY & Co.
